

Program Learning Outcomes SOCIAL WORK

A student graduating with a B.A. in Social Work from Wilberforce University will be able to:

- Apply social work ethical and professional behaviors in social work practice.
- Engage in practice-informed research and research-informed practice
- Use critical thinking skills to conduct evidence-based evaluations of models of assessment, prevention, intervention, and evaluation for individuals, families, groups organizations and communities.
- Clearly write and present social work ideas and information synthesized from multiple sources including primary scientific literature and research.
- Advance human rights and social, economic and environmental justice.
- Demonstrate career readiness skills necessary to smoothly and effectively transition into an entry level position or graduate program in or related to Social Work.

Revised: Spring 2018

Wilberforce University, Post Office Box 1001, Wilberforce, OH 45384-1001