

Program Learning Outcomes

INFORMATION SYSTEMS MANAGEMENT

A student graduating with a B.S. in Information Systems Management from Wilberforce University will be able to:

- Evaluate business issues and identify potential technical and non-technical solutions to these issues.
- Plan technical projects for corporate clients that increases efficiency of the organization and/or increases organizational profitability.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the ethical principles within information systems management and identify possible threats to information systems.
- Effectively utilize database and database management systems to organize, store and retrieve data.
- Write clearly and effectively on topics related to the profession of information systems management.
- Effectively develop and communicate oral presentations as appropriate to a wide variety of audiences.
- Demonstrate career readiness skills necessary to smoothly and effectively transition into an entry level position or graduate program in or related to Information Systems Management.

Revised: Spring 2019

Wilberforce University, Post Office Box 1001, Wilberforce, OH 45384-1001