

Program Learning Outcomes

Forge Your Path with a B.S. in Criminal Justice Administration

Are you ready to embark on a transformative journey that places you at the forefront of the criminal justice landscape? Wilberforce University proudly presents the Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice Administration – your gateway to a dynamic career where justice, ethics, and strategic leadership converge.

Empower Your Potential with Program Learning Outcomes

At Wilberforce University, we're dedicated to fostering your success in the realm of criminal justice administration. As a graduate with a B.S. in Criminal Justice Administration, you'll emerge as a knowledgeable and ethical professional, poised to navigate the complex terrain of justice administration with finesse. Our comprehensive program equips you to:

- Unveil the Inner Workings of Justice: Identify and eloquently describe the intricate structure and functions of key components within the criminal justice system – from law enforcement and courts to corrections and juvenile justice.
- Master Critical Analysis and Problem-Solving: Skillfully apply methods of critical analysis to criminology and criminal justice issues, proposing valid and effective solutions that contribute to the advancement of justice.
- Champion Ethical Principles: Deepen your understanding of ethical principles within criminal justice administration, deftly identifying and addressing common ethical challenges that arise.
- Communicate with Clarity: Develop the art of clear and persuasive written communication on topics central to the profession of criminal justice administration.
- Inspire Diverse Audiences: Cultivate the skill to deliver impactful oral presentations that resonate across a broad spectrum of audiences.
- Transition Seamlessly to Excellence: Acquire the career readiness skills essential for a seamless and triumphant entry into entry-level positions or advanced graduate programs within the realm of Criminal Justice Administration.

A Legacy of Excellence since Inception

These program learning outcomes exemplify our unwavering commitment to excellence, meticulously crafted to prepare you for the evolving landscape of criminal justice administration. Your journey at Wilberforce University is fortified by a legacy of academic distinction, ensuring you receive an education that is both progressive and rooted in tradition.

Join Us and Redefine Criminal Justice Leadership

Choose the B.S. in Criminal Justice Administration at Wilberforce University and step into a future where justice, ethics, and strategic leadership converge seamlessly. Allow our program to propel you into a realm of limitless possibilities, where your passion for justice is enriched by strategic prowess. Welcome to a world where every step you take shapes the course of justice. Your transformative journey commences here.